MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of TrainingFROM : Chief, Plans and*SUBJECT : Weekly Activities*A. COMPLETED PROJECTS*1. CIA Briefing of the National War College

a. Initial reaction of the War College Staff and students who commented to members of this Staff indicated that the briefing was a high point in their course to date. The support received from the Administrative Staff of the Intelligence School and Audio Aids Section was excellent.

b. Captain Shade, USN, Project Officer at the National War College for the CIA briefing, informed C/PPS that his Staff section of the faculty will critique the whole block of instruction which included the CIA presentation, sometime after 13 September. He will inform me of the results of this critique for the information of all participants. Captain Shade also said that the consensus among his colleagues informally obtained was that the briefing was "splendid."

2. Army Instructor Training Conference

[] terminated three days of active military duty at Ft. Meade where he participated in a conference considering revisions to the Army instructor training course. A separate report has been submitted to C/PPS.
